CROCUSES' MERRY GO ROUND

The bright colors of the bravest of all the small flowers of Spring are arrayed in a splash of color at Mrs. Barrie's home on Ned's Point Road. Rain, snow or bitter cold does not dete these small heroic bearers of glad tidings as they push through the earth to be the first on the colorful agenda of this season. For so many years, we have enjoyed this garden of special gifts to all who pass by and we give a salute of thanks to the lady who pours such love into her garden so that it spills over to be enjoyed by all of us.

In a statement following the election, newly-sworn in Selectman Talty said, "I thank the people of Mattapoisett for electing me to the Office of Selectman. Mattapoisett can look to the future with a Board of Selectmen that provides leadership, planning, effective communication, and a team spirit. We want to keep Mattapoisett the kind of town we want it to be and be proud of. I consider it a great privilege and honor to serve as your Selectman. Thank you."

Mr. Mahoney, commenting on his loss in the Selectman's race, said, "It has been an exhilarating experience, and I am grateful to all who supported me." He added, "I believe the large voter turnout shows a clear decision of the voters, making both the winner and loser pleased with the results."

Mr. Bowman commented that he had extended an invitation to Mr. Nunes to work together making it a friendly changeover. "I am a friend of Manny's and have been for many years. I hope to work with all departments in town. I have no plans for changes, but I will see how things go. We've got to work together to prepare the budget for the annual town meeting - that's a priority now."

Mr. Nunes said, in accepting his loss as Highway Surveyor, "The people wanted a change. Wesley Bowman will do a good job, and I'll be glad to help him in any way I can."

Mrs. Nunes said Manny has been to the Plymouth County to apply for his retirement pension which will take a while to become effective. She said Manny plans to attend the Plymouth County Highway meetings where he will remain as a retired member of the association. In 1960 Mr. Nunes was elected president of Plymouth County Highway Surveyors' Association and was vice-president for two years previously. Manny has many friends who will keep him busy, said his wife, Marion.

ers. He said Selectman Suzan did not just attend weekly meetings the past six years, but worked many hours beyond that on many projects for the town. He reminisced about the good times the three members of the board had while "walking the bounds" which is done every five years with Fairhaven, Marion, Acushnet and Rochester Selectmen.

The Chairman said, "On behalf of the Board and residents of Mattapoisett, I thank you for your service."

Selectman Hubbard expressed his thanks to Mr. Suzan and said he was a very dedicated worker for the town.

Selectman Suzan said he has enjoyed working with some super people. "I don't think townspeople realize the amount of hard work there is in being a Selectman. At one time Selectmen estimated they worked at the rate of 25 cents an hour based on the number of hours they worked for their salary averaging $2,100 per year. Despite the hours I've enjoyed every minute." He said, jokingly, "I've heard I'm moving to California. That's news to me. I may be visiting my family more often in California, but I don't intend to leave Mattapoisett - it's my home."

Due to the town election on Tuesday, there were no appointments. In a brief business session a letter from George J. Geisser, Jr. Company of Riverside, RI was placed on file. The consulting engineers noted they would like to be considered for the testing and inspection services on the proposed police stataion project.

In other business, Selectmen approved, at the recommendation of Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes, to close the area from the stone groin at Camp Massasoit, easterly to Eel Pond Creek, effective April 11th, due to propagation.

The Board also received information from the state executive office on Environmental Affairs regarding local by-laws designed to protect open space areas. Of particular in-

Cluster or Open Space residential development allows the area of individual lots to be reduced, while the total number of dwelling units for the project site remains the same. The land not used for house lots is used for recreational purposes or kept as common open space. Cluster zoning may be adopted as a provision of the community's zoning by-law. At a meeting last Wednesday at the Fire Station Hall, Chairman Harvey J. Blanchette announced the firm of Pleasant Street Development Corp. of New Bedford has submitted to the Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency (MHFA) a request for a Comprehensive Permit and grant. Following notification to the Housing Committee, application for this permit is the first step necessary for a developer to take in accordance with a 1969 Massachusetts General Law known as "Anti-Snob Zoning".

Chairman Blanchette said he understands there is a purchase agreement on the land. The land is owned by Barry Denham, Bruce E. Rocha, and Robert A. Cattley, all of Mattapoisett. The land consists of 16.15 acres located on Lot 6 off Park Street (the land borders the Fairhaven branch of the Old Colony Railroad, Route I-195, and the state DPW land. There is a paper 40 foot roadway on the property).

The proposed development will be in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Home Ownership Opportunity Program which is jointly administered by the state executive office of Community and Development and Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency.

The development, if approved, would be known as "The Beacon at Mattapoisett", and will have between 55 to

A letter addressed to Paul Cusson of Pleasant Street Development Corp. will be sent by the Housing Committee saying, "We have had numerous companies interested in building affordable housing in Mattapoisett, and, when we feel the committee is at a point to make specific decisions at a later date, you will certainly be notified."

The committee members pointed out they are still newly involved with the program and working on the grants available and the specific steps developers have to take before any actual building can be done.

The committee noted there are at least eight steps involved in obtaining the Comprehensive Permit process. One of the most important steps is the hearing process when the local Zoning Board determines if the project will be granted a permit.

The Chairman pointed out it is necessary the area residents be given prior notice and that the developer pay for the notification. He added that the state will not recognize a Comprehensive Permit without "our blessing".

"Any development would have to have about 30 percent affordable housing units," the Chairman said. The state estimate is 10 percent of each community of affordable housing. An arbitrary figure in Mattapoisett is 270 Overall single housing sites).

It was further explained by the committee that an Impact Study and Feasibility Study would also be of great importance noting the development's effect on town services, such as water, sewer, police, fire and schools. Selectmen have the right to turn down a proposal if the guidelines aren't met.

Committee member Fire Chief/Board of Health Agent Donald C. Wood expressed concern that if "we put in large private developments such as has been suggested for the Brandt Island area, then we come in later with an affordable housing proposal, there may not be enough sewer capacity for our plan. If the capacity is reached before we get off the ground, we could be hurt."

Committee member Peter Kortright, representing the Growth Management Committee, recommended the committee have a base on which to judge an impact report from a developer. He also suggested a meeting with the developers to learn more about their plans would be worthwhile.

Chairman Blanchette explained the state law was passed to help address the state's housing needs. The law provides for "comprehensive permits" that allow for the development of subsidized low or moderate income housing. These permits, granted on a case-by-case basis by local Zoning Boards of Appeals, following a public hearing, may allow housing construction at greater density than allowed by local zoning.

The committee concluded that they are still in the learning and investigating process and will proceed cautiously and will evaluate carefully all proposals coming before their committee.

In Appreciation from Manuel R. Nunes, Jr.

After fifty years of dedicated service to the Town, it has been a great source of pride and pleasure to have served as its Highway Surveyor.

I wish to thank the citizens of Mattapoisett for their loyal support over all those years; also, the Town officials, the various Boards, and Departments and numerous other townspeople and friends.

My congratulations to Wes Bowman on his election and I wish him much success. I know he will continue to run the Department and work for the best interest of the Town.

If I can be of any assistance in any way, I will be glad to cooperate with him if he so desires.

I hope to be around a few more years to see the growth and progress of this great Town.

A Tough Act to Follow

Editorial, DCJ

No praise need be directed toward any public official who has been returned to office over a span of a consecutive half century. The public confidence has been demonstrated far above anyone's poor power to add or detract. However, one more word couldn't hurt.

Manny Nunes is of the old school. As he worked, he put his heart, soul and his honest pride into the labor. It shows throughout our town. The roads and streets we ride on are built to last. The wear and tear are tended so there are no potholes. The bridges in town are built to rival the pyramids.

In the winter, it has always been pure pleasure to return to Mattapoisett after a heavy snow. The fight through the mess that is New Bedford and the roads clogged with drifts and ice of other surrounding areas made the contrast so striking.

On parade, that Highway Department equipment, which sees daily heavy use, shines with care. It is hard to tell the new from the old. When the town needed a town barn to house it and there was little money, Manny with his men built it. The examples of dedication to service are legend; the list would be formidable.

Whenever you walk by Shipyard Park, glance at the monument there. That rock was winched from deep in the woods and trucked to that spot by the indomitable Manny Nunes. It's like an iceberg; 2/3 of it lies below the surface. Who knows the tonnage. All we can be sure of is that it is planted to stay. Nothing is going to move it. It is symbolic. Every time I pass that rock it will remind me of Manny and an old school of public service where 2/3 of the effort lies below the surface and the work endures at the top for all to enjoy.

Manny, no one does it better in any town anywhere. Fifty years is more than enough effort and you should now have time to be free of responsibility. Enjoy your life with the burden lifted; with the blessing of a grateful town.

and varied bird and plant life of Brazil and its South American neighbors. The richness of this environment may be seen from a comparison of bird populations: for example, one might eventually see about 100 species of birds in the Marion area while one may see over 400 species of birds in the Brazilian subcontinent in a few weeks.

Richard Harlowe, a teacher of biology and oceanography for the last 24 years at Tabor Academy and a Marion resident, made a natural history tour of Brazil in 1987.

The date is Sunday, April 17th, at St. Gabriel's Parish Hall, Front and South Streets, Marion; breakfast is at 8:30 a.m. (early bird coffee at 8:15 a.m.).

The Men's Fellowship offers all men of the tri-town area an opportunity for friendly association with NO obligation to participate in service or religious projects. Breakfasts are prepared in turn by members. Donation is $2.50.

will be reviewed with a special focus on general and statutory powers given by Massachusetts General Law (MGL), the Legislature, and enabling legislation. Also to be discussed is how Boards of Health could and should interpret laws and regulations. Thomas Fantozzi, Coastal Zone Management's Buzzards Bay Technical Assistance Specialist and past Bourne Health Agent, will lead the workshop.

Who should attend this workshop? Certainly, interested citizens are invited but local officials, in particular Boards of Health members or agents should make a point of attending. If private citizens are unable to attend, they should make sure someone from their local Board of Health will be there.

Other topics to be discussed are how state and local agencies interact and a case study will be presented by Ted Pratt, Marion Board of Health.

The workshop is offered by the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies and Massachusetts Coastal Zone Management.

This full-day workshop will begin at 9:00 a.m. and end at 4:00 p.m. on April 30th at Tabor Academy in Marion. There is a charge of $10. to cover lunch. For more information or to register call Barbara Sego at the Lloyd Center, 990-0505.

June Mendell, Housing, informed the meeting that Village Court Annex will be dedicated on Friday, April 29th, at 2 p.m. at Village Court. This annex is one hundred percent barrier-free - a must for the handicapped.

Ms. Mendell also discussed a letter that was sent to the Mattapoisett Housing Authority from the Pleasant Street Development Corporation in New Bedford. The Corporation is seeking a comprehensive permit to construct the "Beacon at Mattapoisett" on 16.5 acres of land off Park Street. The development would include 55-70 condominiums, a swimming pool, and a clubhouse. Under Housing Partnership guidelines, thirty percent of the development would be "affordable" in order for the Corporation to receive a permit. More information on this proposal will be discussed at the Mattapoisett Selectmen's meeting on Tuesday, April 12th, at 7 p.m. at the Town Hall.

Also, the Partnership has applied to the State for Scattered Site Rental Sites: A) Conventional Elderly, 32 units; B) Scattered Site Family, 12 units; C) Special Needs, 8 units.

If the application is approved by the state, Mattapoisett will receive grant money to hire a consultant to locate feasible sites for the proposed units.

Michael Dahill, Harbor, reported that his committee is scheduled to meet with the Selectmen on April 19th to discuss mooring and parking regulations and fees for the 1988 season. His committee has prepared a set of regulations for mooring and parking fees to be collected. His committee sees two priorities:

1) Should there be a Harbor Committee to assist the Harbormaster in his duties?

2) Should there be an Enterprise Fund to administer collected fees and channel the money back into waterfront improvement projects? Approximately sixty percent of the moorings belong to non-residents and this could be added revenue for the town.

The goal of the harbor committee is have the regulations published so they can be enforced for the 1988 season. The total goal of the committee is to have a comprehensive map of the harbor areas - areas for moorings, channels, and water sports. The harbor should serve everyone.

Dan Ostrye, Public Facilities, reported that his committee completed growth studies from 1976-1988. Using town reports, information was gleaned for population increases and building permits in that time period. Now his committee has to adjust 1976 dollars to 1988 dollars to ascertain town boards' budgets in the past and

The committee feels we have not yet experienced any startling growth, but we must be prepared to accurately project our needs. One aim of the committee is to meet with all town boards to see how they are projecting growth patterns and adjusting their budgets accordingly.

The other aim of this committee is to finish a synopsis of unacceptable and acceptable roads slated for future development and discuss this with the highway superintendent. The committee sees the bottom line as how strong is the town infrastructure to absorb and support projected growth.

Wayne Walega, General Business, is actively seeking aid from any interested business people and residents to complete his work tasks. Right now he is functioning as a one-person committee and he feels there are many qualified residents who could offer some help. Please call Wayne if you can give of your time and expertise.

Chairman Peter Kortright's closing remarks pointed out the strong need for Mattapoisett to hire a full-time town planner. A planner's expertise is desperately needed if Mattapoisett is to manage its growth wisely.

The sub-committees are continuing to meet and all meetings are posted forty-eight hours in advance at Town Hall. The chairmen of the sub-

Letter to The Editor

I read that several places in the south are having a new thing come up in zoning.

Just one example - people at one time or another had homes along a country road. Then way down the road a mall was built - gradually the road was widened, then another mall was built in the other direction.

Now the road/speedway is being built into a five lane road - all twenty-four homes are for sale. All agreed to form a trust as a group to have the whole area put up for sale as a unit, have the zoning changed, and move somewhere else to live.

That's just another problem to consider in an overall plan.

You read occasionally of cities, areas, here and in Europe of a "greenbelt". Whether they were formed years ago, whether in areas any might be established, if homes were involved any litigation, any claimed financial project loss because say 500 years from now, business zoning had crept up to their borders and they would be prevented from going "commercial" and making a killing - chuckle - I should have said the future inhabitants.

Towel Collection Campaign

NEW & CLEAN USED TOWELS NEEDED

New and clean used towels are being collected for area shelters at the 39 Jack Conway Real Estate Company offices.

"We learned of a chronic need for towels at Main Spring House in Brockton. A call to other shelters in the area confirmed our suspicion that towels are needed at most shelters. We therefore organized a company-wide campaign to collect and deliver them," said Carole Mooney, director of Conway's public relations department.

The towel collection campaign will be held during the spring months when many homemakers are redecorating and replacing faded or odd colored towels.

Towel collection boxes are located at each of the 39 Jack Conway Company offices.

Preserving Open Space

OPTIONS FOR LANDOWNERS AND COMMUNITIES

"Preserving Open Space", a program on options for landowners and towns, will be presented by the Plymouth County Wildlands Trust, the Middleborough Conservation Commission, and the Middleborough Planning Board at the Henry B. Burkland School, Mayflower Avenue, Middleborough on Thursday, April 21st, at 7:30 p.m. The program is free and open to the public. There will be a question and answer period and refreshments following the program.

Massachusetts is the third most heavily populated state in the Union, and southeastern Massachusetts is the fastest growing region of the state. How, then, can local towns protect some of their vanishing heritage of natural areas and open land? How can landowners afford to keep any land undeveloped in light of increased property valuations, higher tax bills, and demand for buildable land? There are no easy answers but a number of useful techniques will be addressed at this meeting. For more information call 224-2765 or 826-5050.

The evening will include a brief introduction to PCWT. A discussion of the benefits that open space brings to a town will be followed by a look at how landowners can benefit from giving land or conservation restrictions to a charitable group like PCWT. Tax relief and the 1986 tax reform act will be considered, as will possibilities for cooperation between public agencies and private organizations. Among those participating will be William S. Abbott, PCWT's President and Legal Counsel; Kathleen Anderson, Middleborough resident and Director Emeritus of the Manomet Bird Observatory; Joel Lerner, Director of the Division of Conservation Services for the state of Massachusetts; Professor Reed F. Stewart of Bridgewater State College; and representatives of the Middleborough Planning Board and Conservation Commission.

PCWT is co-sponsoring the meeting because it believes that large amounts of conservation land must be preserved if the quality of life is to survive as the region grows. PCWT is a non-profit trust, which owns nearly 1,100 acres of open space in 8 towns.

Membership inquiries are welcome. Write PCWT, 898 State Road, Plymouth MA. 02360. Contact Leona Asker at 224-2765 or Linda Hewitt at 826-5050.

TRAVEL CAREER TRAINING

Right now in this country tourism is the largest employer in more than half of the fifty states. Consequently, there is a demand for highly skilled individuals equipped with specialized training and knowledge about the travel industry. To meet this need, Newbury College offers a two-year associate degree program and a one-year certificate program, both designed to prepare students for such careers as travel agent, tour operator, agency manager, travel specialist and travel consultant.

Evening classes for the summer semester begin on May 16, and are held in the Blue House at New Bedford High School, 230 Hathaway Boulevard. Information about the courses, as well as about deferred tuition and financial aid, may be had by calling 996-3138 or visiting the Administration Office at 995 Rockdale Avenue, New Bedford. Career counseling and placement testing are also available.

Newbury College, a two-year college, is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, and offers over 30 programs of study in many locations throughout eastern Massachusetts.

cine with 50 years of experience in the healing profession. Hu Bin writes, "Breathing exercises in our country have been applied for treating diseases and keeping good health from its very beginning. It appeared side by side with the science of medicine even earlier than the founding of Taoism."

Dan has studied other breath techniques including Prana Yoga, SIMBIC, and rebirth. Through his work with the breath he has discovered two important things. First, it is important to stay ahead of the body's demand for breath and it's vital to get to the energy that is in the breath. Secondly, he has discovered a formula common to each of these techniques: awareness, relaxation, and breath control. Dan is quite clear that breath exercises increase immunity, power, health, and well-being. Presently, Brule is writing a book which is a comparative study of five breathing techniques and their "beneficence" to human evolution.

mouth they'll be celebrating three distinct anniversaries: the 9th for the Southeastern New England Crossword Tourney; the 75th year of the game puzzle's existence; and the 424th anniversary of the birth of the world's master wordsmith, William Shakespeare.

All word puzzle fans in the area are invited to participate in the day's fun and games, an event sponsored annually by Friends of Dartmouth Libraries, a non-profit organization dedicated to enhancing the libraries' public service.

Several trophies and prizes will be awarded the winners of the morning competition, which will start at 9 a.m. and continue until near noon, when the cumulative point scores for three separate games will be tallied. At the gourmet home-cooked luncheon to follow, Ms. Hope Atkinson, veteran tourney director and initiator of the first such local competition, will announce the names of winners.

After the awards ceremony, the gathering will be privileged to hear an informal talk on various aspects of the puzzle pastime by the dean of crossword savants, Dr. Eugene T. Maleska, author and famed crossword puzzle editor for the New York Times. Dr. Maleska has on several former meetings at South Dartmouth proven to be a most talented and entertaining raconteur.

The tournament format is designed with concern for the comfort and ease of participants. The first of the three puzzles to be solved is the least in terms of size and complexity. The second is somewhat larger and more exacting, with compensatory additional time being allotted to its solution. Before starting to work on the third puzzle, which is the most challenging, all players are invited to partake of the coffee and homemade goodies laid out for them as kaffee klatch guests of the Friends.

An event which is steadily increasing in popularity, the Southeastern New England Tourney last year attracted 50 competitors, many of whom traveled from communities well outside the region, including New York state and the District of Columbia.

Participants pay a $5. registration fee to obtain a seat at the game tables, set up at the ground floor level for easy access off the parking lot at the Southworth Library, 732 Dartmouth Street. Reservations for the buffet luncheon, at $6.50, must be made by Friday, the day before the tourney. Registration and reservations, payable by check or money order, may be made by mail to the Friends at P.O. Box 11, Dartmouth, MA. 02714. Additional information, travel directions, etc. are available by written inquiry or by telephone to (617) 636-2215.

Tourney participants are not obligated to purchase luncheon tickets, nor are luncheon guests required to participate in the morning competition. Contestants may invite guests to attend the luncheon with them. Other competitors may prefer to patronize one of several nearby eating places, then return for the after luncheon address by Dr. Maleska.

Oakland Ballet: Giselle

The Oakland Ballet of California will present the full-length production of "GISELLE", the most celebrated ballet of the Romantic era, on Saturday, April 23rd, at 8:00 p.m. One of the west's major professional ballet companies, Oakland Ballet has earned an outstanding reputation for its presentations of ballet masterworks. Tickets are priced at $20.00, $18.00 and $16.00 with a $2.00 discount for senior citizens and students. For more information on tickets and group packages call the Zeiterion Box Office at 994-2900. Tickets are also available at all Ticketmaster locations.

Founded in 1965 by the present Artistic Director, Ronn Guidi, the Oakland Ballet is known for performing classic ballets from the Diaghilev and early 20th century repertoires as well as the works of innovative and contemporary choreographers. Under Guidi's direction, the 28-member Company has mounted impressive revivals of ballets such as Nijinska's "Les Biches" and "Les Noces", Kurt Jooss' "The Green Table", and Charles Weidman's "Lynchtown" and "Brahms Waltzes".

The Oakland Ballet adds "Giselle", their fifth full-length ballet, to their repertoire. As Mr. Guidi commented, "'Giselle' is a dramatic ballet in the Diaghilev tradition and a work that will not only please our audiences at home, but one for which we have already seen significant demand on the road. Best of all, Freddie Franklin, former premiere danseur of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, will stage the ballet for us."

This classic ballet was first presented in Paris, France in 1841. The dramatic story is about Giselle, a frail peasant girl, who is happily betrothed to Count Albrecht, who she believes is a peasant, only to be cruelly betrayed by him. After the premiere of "Giselle", many versions were mounted, but it fell from the repertoire by the mid-19th century. It was Daighilev who brought the ballet back to western Europe in 1910, and it has been a popular classic ever since.

The Oakland Ballet performed "Hansel and Gretel" a couple of years ago at the Zeiterion. The Zeiterion Theatre is located at 684 Purchase Street in historic downtown New Bedford.

the church roof reshingled. This annual event enables all ages to participate.

We will start rocking April 16th at 8:30 p.m. and go until April 17th at 11:30 a.m. Participants will rock for 15 hours with a 5 minute break every hour, when they can get up and stretch, have a snack, then back to their chairs. In the wee hours of the morning, when people start to nod off, we have been known to form a rocking "conga line", keeping the chair in front of us moving all the time.

We have rocked in the past to put an access ramp on the church, we helped to purchase an electric huff and puff wheelchair for one of our members, we have donated money to the restoration of the Friends' Meeting House in Acushnet and to the Methodist Camps' Restoration Fund.

So, won't you keep April 16th - 17th in mind? Come on down, have a cup of coffee, talk, sing, make a donation. We'll be there!!! Will you???

Barbershop Concert

From ages 19 to 93 they'll be standing on the risers at the Keith Junior High School to perform in the 42nd Annual Barbershop Concert on Saturday evening, April 23rd.

Herb Stone and John Costa, both 93 years of age, have been singing with the Harpoon Harmonizers chorus since shortly after the New Bedford chapter was chartered.

As Herb Stone said, "I retired as Deputy Chief of the New Bedford Fire Department but I never retired from the Harpoon Harmonizers".

The featured quartet on this year's show, "The ADVENTURERS", are coming from Nashua, New Hampshire. They won the Northeast District quartet championship in 1966-1967 and sing the kind of songs that let audiences sit back, relax and enjoy.

The co-feature quartet this year hails from Providence, RI, called "NET WORK". They are the current Division 4 Champions which is an area encompassing southeastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Several local quartets will also perform including "The Shades of Blue", "The Sunday Funnies", and also the Harpoon Harmonizers Chorus.

Advance tickets at $7.00 can be purchased from any chorus member or from The Lighthouse Christian Book Store, 282 Union Street, New Bedford.

"THE MAGIC FLUTE" IN CONCERT FORM

Mozart's enchanting opera "The Magic Flute" will be sung in its entirety without staging at the next concert of the New Bedford Symphony Orchestra, Saturday, April 16th, at 8:00 p.m. at the Zeiterion Theatre in New Bedford. Principal roles will be sung by Jayne West and Robert Honeysucker, who are well-known on the Boston stage.

The opera, to be sung in English, is the story of Prince Tamino, who sets out to rescue Princess Pamina, who has been abducted by Sarastro for motives that are not all bad. With the assistance of his friend Papageno --- and with the magic of a golden flute and silver bells --- his adventures end in success. Tamino and Pamina are united.
